PARISH NOTICES

Those wishing to give a financial contribution to help with relief work in the area affected by the earthquake in Central Italy are asked to put the money in an envelope and give it into the Parish office during the week or place in collection bags at Sunday Mass next weekend.

We remember the victims and their families in our prayers today.

Friday next is the First Friday. The 9.30 am Mass will be offered for those whose names is on the Altar list of the Dead.

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday 28th August 2016

In this week's Gospel we are invited to the eternal banquet in the kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus is not impressed with the people pushing themselves to the places of honour.

Humility is required. We are asked to take an honest measure of ourselves without being boastful, pompous or proud.

The Gospel warns us against all forms of pride and self-glorification.
God rejects the proud and raises up
the humble.
