MASS OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST 11TH JUNE 2023

PRAYER

O God of pilgrims, you accompany us always on the road of life. You fed the people of Israel in the desert. Today, you feed your people through Jesus Christ, our living bread of life. May this food so satisfy us that we may always hunger for that true life found in you alone. Amen.

Sisters of Mercy gift their building to the Parish of Athy

The Sisters of Mercy have gifted their building, Mount St Mary's on Stanhope Street to the Parish of Athy. We are so grateful and appreciative of this very thoughtful and generous offer.

The building will be transferred to the Parish on 1st August 2023. It is hoped to develop a much needed Parish Pastoral Centre. It is also hoped that the building will be used for the benefit of the people of Athy. Regrettably, the creches will not be continuing because the company which operated them will cease to exist. We are delighted that all the other groups using the building at present will continue to do so. This marks a new chapter in the development of the pastoral life of the Parish of Athy, thanks to the Sisters of Mercy.

St. Anthony of Padua,

Anthony also spelled Antony, Italian Sant'Antonio da Padova, original name Fernando Martins de Bulhões, (born 1195, Lisbon, Portugal—died June 13, 1231, Arcella, Verona [Italy]; canonized 1232; Feast day June 13)

Franciscan friar, doctor of the church, and patron of the poor. Padua and Portugal claim him as their patron saint, and he is invoked for the return of lost property. Anthony was born into a wealthy family and was raised in the church. He joined the Augustinian canons in 1210 and probably became a priest. In 1220 he joined the Franciscan order, hoping to preach to the Saracens (Muslims) and be martyred. On his way to Morocco, he became seriously ill and was forced to return home. However, his ship back to Portugal was blown off course and eventually landed in Sicily. Because of his continuing poor health, he was not allowed to pursue his missionary work among the Saracens. Instead, he taught theology at Bologna, Italy, and at Montpellier, Toulouse, and Puy-en-Velay in southern France. He won great admiration as a preacher and was noted for his simple yet profound teaching of the Catholic faith. He died en route to Padua, Italy, where he is buried.

St Anthony of Padua pray for us.
